

TAX NOTICE

I will be at the following places on dates named below for the purpose of collecting 1914 taxes. This is my second and last round. Penalty and interest go on after March 1st. I am sending every tax-payer notice in our county paper. I don't want any to pay penalty or cost.

Carthage,	Monday, Jan. 25
Rewoda,	Tuesday, " 26
Rock City,	Wednesday, " 27
Rome, at Bank,	Thursday, " 28
Dixon Springs, at Bank,	Friday, " 29
Riddleton,	Saturday, " 30
Gordonsville, James' store,	Monday, Feb. 1
Hickman, at Bank,	Tuesday, " 2
Sykes,	Wednesday, " 3
Brush Creek, at Bank,	Thursday, " 4
Lancaster, at Bank,	Friday, " 5
Monoville,	Saturday, " 6
Elmwood,	Monday, " 8
Stonewall, Smith's store,	Tuesday, " 9
Club Springs, Ballard's store,	Wednesday, " 10
Chestnut Mound,	Thursday, " 11
Maggart, Lynch's store,	Friday, " 12
Donoho, McClellan's store,	Saturday, " 13
Carthage,	Monday, " 15
New Middleton,	Tuesday, " 16
Grant,	Wednesday, " 17
Defeated,	Friday, " 19
Difficult,	Saturday, " 20
Pleasant Shade,	Monday, " 22

I am trying to give all a notice so there will be no fault on my part. Tax is a debt and I will be glad not to have to report so many delinquents. Pay now and save penalties.

G. F. M. RUSSELL,
Smith County Trustee.

Carthage Junction

Mrs. Robt. Lancaster is with her mother, Mrs. J. M. Stewart. Jesse Williams and some more hunters from Nashville were here last week on a big hunt. Mrs. Effie Ingram of Watertown is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. Phillips. Miss Maggie Jones spent the weekend with her cousin, Minnie Butts. L. L. Stewart spent Sunday in Brush Creek. Miss Hope Phillips of Nashville spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Mark Brown of this place. J. H. Phillips spent Sunday in Watertown.

GRANT

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Goodall of Gibbs X Roads spent Sunday with Mrs. Ellen Moore. Miss Birdie Neal has returned home after a visit to her brother, Prof. Ovid Neal, and the Misses Vaden of Elmwood. Mrs. Marvin Kemp and little daughter are visiting relatives in Carthage. Royal Johnson and mother, Mrs. R. E. Johnson, of Lebanon spent the weekend here with friends. J. P. Ward, T. T. House and A. T. Morris attended the inauguration of our governor, Tom C. Rye. Miss Marie Gill spent last week with relatives at New Middleton. Mrs. Z. A. Hendrickson has returned home after a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. R. Curtis at Carthage. Little Misses Elizabeth and Tabitha Arrington of Cross Roads visited Miss Tabitha Barbee last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Douglass left here Monday for Nashville where they will make their future home. A party of young people will leave here Wednesday on the Str. Henry Harley for a several day's trip to points in Kentucky. Mr. Chester Tuggle and Miss Sadie Hall were quietly married Saturday evening.

FLAT ROCK.

We had a law-suit in our community last week, which does not speak well for the beginning of a new year. Mrs. Mary Hall and children are visiting relatives near X Roads. Mr. Ben Boyd and family visited relatives in Watertown last week. Master David McCall spent the past week with his uncle, S. A. Barnett at Lebanon. Mrs. Ruben Smith of near Rock City is with her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Litchford of this place. Mr. W. S. Bridgewater of this place took his sons, William and Richard, to Lebanon to enter school for the year. Prof. Oster and wife of Brush Creek will make their home with the later's father W. S. Bridgewater.

J. R. CURTIS, The Real Estate Man.

CARTHAGE, TENNESSEE.
Let me locate you in the best section of the Sunny Southland. I have farms and houses to sell, exchange or rent, from a house and lot to 500 acres, ranging in price from $1,200 to $30,000, on terms to suit. If you want to buy, exchange, sell or rent, write or telephone me at once. I CAN SAVE YOU MONEY. Both Telephones.

Social and Personal Notes

E. T. Hickey of Holmes Gap was in Carthage Tuesday.
J. E. Winfrey of Hickman was here Tuesday.

C. R. McClarin made a business trip to Lebanon Monday.
Guy Maddux of Granville was a recent visitor in Carthage.

Fate, Napoleon and Tom Rollins were in Carthage last week.

Dr. Frank Swope of Nashville was among his many friends here last week.

Big sale on enamel ware, 5 and 10c at Samson & Yeaman's.

Miss Claudia Walton spent the weekend with home folks in Nashville.

Mrs. W. B. Ford was a visitor in Carthage Saturday.

Miss Florence Reeves of New Middleton was the weekend guest of Miss Sallie Squires.

R. L. Jared of Buffalo Valley spent a few days here last week as the guest of his sister, Mrs. F. P. McGinness.

Miss Allie Mai McGinness is spending this week with relatives at Buffalo Valley.

W. L. Grisham, blacksmith and mill man of Elmwood, was here Monday.

W. T. Vaden, a Bluff Creek merchant, was in Carthage Friday transacting business.

Winter is not over yet. Go to Samson & Yeaman's and buy a heating stove at actual cost.

James Samson of Alexandria was in Carthage latter part of last week.

Messrs. I. N. Cardwell and Tom Kemp of difficult were here Monday.

Miss Bessie Harville of Nashville is spending this week as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Perry Hughes.

All Ladies' Cloaks and Jackets at less than cost. Ladies' dress goods and Ladies' Sweaters at cost, for cash only.

H. B. Oliver.

Miss Lizzie Savage arrived here last week from Nashville to spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Julian Fisher.

Miss Carrie Williams left Wednesday on Str. Henry Harley for Ft. Blount where she will spend two weeks with relatives.

Messrs. L. A. McDonald and E. B. Glover of Chestnut Mound were in Carthage last week looking after their interests.

LOST—Pair of EYE GLASSES. Name of maker on inside of case Radebaugh, Nashville, Tenn. Reward for return to Courier office.

D. O. Hailey of Watertown passed through Carthage last week enroute home from Defeated Creek, where he spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hailey.

Monroe Smith of the St. Mary's neighborhood, was delivering tobacco in Carthage Tuesday. His crop brought him 3 and 7.

Samson and Yeaman have 15 or 20 heating stoves that they will close out at cost.

LOST—Pair of Eye Glasses. Name of maker on inside of case Radebaugh, Nashville, Tenn. Reward for return to Courier office.

Attorneys W. V. Lee, J. N. Fisher, L. A. Ligon, and H. B. McGinness were in Nashville last week looking after legal matters before the Supreme Court.

While they last heating stoves at actual cost at Samson & Yeaman's. Better hurry and get a real bargain.

J. R. Thomas of near Lebanon formerly a Smith countian, was in Carthage Tuesday and Wednesday qualifying as administrator.

A score of disease can claim your horse—one of them will come day. Better start the New Year right by insuring against death from any cause with H. B. Highers, Carthage. 7-2t

Good homes wanted for two little girls—ages 5 and 7 years. Apply to David Hodges, Carthage, Rt. 2. Cumm. phone No. 42.

Until February 1 will offer my entire stock of Shoes, Clothing and Hats at cost, for cash only. H. B. Oliver.

Samson and Yeaman have several heating stoves that they will close out at actual cost.

Messrs. J. T. Brown and J. W. Richardson, two of Jackson county's farmers was in Carthage Tuesday, and delivered two loads of tobacco to Baker & Hackett, receiving 2 and 7 for it.

Assistant Cashier of the Smith County Bank L. B. Flippen was in Nashville two days last week.

Julian Gibbs, one of Gordonsville's carpenters, was in Carthage last week. Mr. Gibbs makes a specialty of putting in screen doors and windows, and he may be found by calling him at the Gordonsville Milling Co.

Messrs. J. H. Parker and J. G. Minton, two farmers from New Middleton, were attending to business in Carthage last week.

Calvin Gregory of Pleasant Shade was in Carthage last week qualifying as administrator of the estate of his father, T. M. Gregory, deceased. He was accompanied by his brother, Tom.

Claud Squires was successful in standing the state examination at Clarksville where he has been in school for the past several months, and was employed by the board as one of the teachers in the High School Department.

Claud is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Squires of this city and this honor for him will be learned of with much pleasure by their friends.

Mrs. R. L. Duval has returned from Atlanta where she spent several days at the bedside of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Duval, who had a severe spell of pneumonia.

Mrs. Sam Pickering left Friday for Cape Girardeau, Mo., where she was summoned to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Yount, who is critically ill.

Mrs. Pickering was joined at Nashville by Mrs. B. J. Rash.

As long as they last, heating stoves at cost. Come in and see them. Samson & Yeaman.

R. H. Russell of Lebanon, a former Smith countian, was among his friends here last week.

County Court Clerk Jno. A. Kemp will spend the weekend with friends and relatives at Difficult.

The friends of Miss Grace Redding, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Redding, of South Carthage, who went to Nashville three months ago to qualify to become a trained nurse in St. Thomas Hospital at Nashville states that she averaged 97 in her general grades, which entitles her to take the regular three-year, course in trained nursing. She is well pleased with the work, and has signed up for three years.

You can always use some nice enamel pans for cooking purposes. Go to Samson & Yeaman's and get what you want for 5 and 10c. Better hurry as the supply is limited.

R. H. Cleveland, one of Pleasant Shade's prosperous and prominent merchants, passed through Carthage last week enroute home from Nashville where he had been for the past three days.

Hon N. G. Roberts of Lebanon was here Tuesday, making necessary arrangements for the transfer of the farm, known as the Wyatt Denney place near New Middleton, to L. B. Kent. Mr. Roberts also transferred to Geo. Wilkerson what is known as the John Marks farm, near Holmes Gap, at the price of $6,000.00.

These farms were purchased by Mr. Robertson from Clerk & Master J. H. Gardenhire at public sale and later sold to these men at a good profit.

L. Robinson, one of the members of the firm of Jennings & Robinson at Brush Creek, was in Carthage Wednesday.

Brier Hill COAL

Made famous by the excellence of its preparation, freeness of impurities and high heating efficiency. None better for all domestic uses.

Sold by T. A. SQUIRES, Carthage.

Who Ranks the Highest, the Colonel or the Major? PLAY TACTICS THE ARMY GAME.

Easy to learn. Most absorbing and interesting game ever made. Ask your dealer for TACTICS. Sample pack 25c postage paid. Address TACTICS, 302 Church Street, Nashville, Tenn.

HICKMAN

A. T. Gwaltney spent the weekend with his brother, J. W. Gwaltney, at Gordonsville. Miss Pearl Newbell spent the weekend at Gordonsville. Miss Tola Denney is visiting her sister at New Middleton. Dr. and Mrs. Curtis, H. T. Moss and Miss Lucile McDonald attended church at Gordonsville Sunday.

School opened here Monday under the management of Misses Alma and Lizzie Ford, of Elmwood. About 40 were enrolled.

Messrs. J. M. Betty, S. Y. Hogan, E. D. Harper, and B. H. Vaden attended the mule sale here Tuesday. Rev. W. P. D. Clark is sick with lagrippe. Mr. Ed Agee was in Brush Creek Tuesday. Miss Verna Nolen entered school at Gordonsville Monday. Mrs. S. J. Thomas is sick at this writing. F. W. Huddleston was in town Tuesday.

Campbell and Finis Ashley have returned to their home at Mt. Juliet after visiting Guy Ashley several days. T. W. Johnson has accepted a position with G. G. Denney. Lurline Gwaltney entered school at Gordonsville Tuesday. N. S. Ashley has returned from Nashville. Ruby Ashley has gone to Gallatin to enter Howard Female College.

Grissim, Thomas & Taylor were here Tuesday buying horses and mules, purchasing about 19 head. Mrs. Roy Bates will start a music class here in a few weeks. N. E. Jackson has moved on Cloverdale street. Moving the switchboard caused some delay in service, but the new operators are in charge now and are ready to serve you.

DIFFICULT.

Mrs. Carrington Clay, who has been sick with lagrippe, is better. Miss Cellie Huddleston of Algood is visiting relatives here.

J. D. Sutton was in Nashville last week to the inauguration of Gov. Rye. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Porter of Pleasant Shade spent the weekend with relatives at this place. Miss Ora Kemp visited Miss Bessie Martin Saturday and Sunday. Bob Kittrell of Defeated filled his regular appointment here Sunday. Miss Espie Knight is attending school at Murfreesboro. Several of the farmers of this section attended the tobacco sale at Carthage Saturday and came back very blue. The farmers of this section are very anxious for pretty weather now in order that they might begin their farm work.

Brush Creek

Rainy weather still continues. Quite a little wind storm visited us Saturday night. The work on Mr. Foutch's new house is most completed which will add much to the appearance of the town. County Chairman W. A. Ashley of Stonewall was here last week. D. K. Reeves was here Thursday enroute to Nashville. Rev. E. S. Frye delivered two interesting discourses at the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Neville went to Hogans Creek Saturday to fill his appointment there.

Wanted.

A good hustling man, to sell Singer Sewing Machines in Smith County, location, either Carthage, or Gordonsville. Good commissions paid on sales and collections. Write J. C. Burris for further information. J. C. BURRIS, Mgr. Box, 411. Lebanon, Tenn. t f

Sheriffs Land Sale.

H. B. Oliver, Va. Mrs. Willie Thompson. In the Circuit Court at Carthage, Tennessee.

By virtue of a venditioni exponas issued to me by the Circuit Court of Smith County, Tennessee, in the foregoing styled case, on January 19th, 1915, I will on February 10th, 1915, at noon, in front of the Court house door at Carthage, Tenn., sell to the highest and best bidder, for cash, the remainder interest of Mrs. Willie West Thompson (formerly Mrs. Uhles) in and to the following tract of land, lying and being in the 14th Civil District of Smith County, Tenn., and bounded on the north by the public road, etc., south by the lands of J. C. Gibbs, et al.; on the east by the lands of B. B. Thompson, et al.; and on the west by the lands of Mrs. N. G. Waggoner, et al., and containing—acres more or less; known as the W. C. West land, and being the same land conveyed by J. C. Sanders to Amanda E. West by deed recorded in Deed Book No. 2, pages 463 and 464, of the records of the Register's office of Smith County, Tenn.

This January 20th, 1915. J. B. GANN, Sheriff. NELSON FISHER, Atty.

Very Low Rates to Nashville Via T. C. Railroad Account F. & A. M. Grand Lodge, January 25th to 29th.

Tickets on sale January 23rd to 26th and for trains scheduled to reach Nashville prior to 3:00 p. m. January 27th, with final return limit Feb. 2, 1915. For further information call on your nearest agent or write J. E. SHIPLEY, A. G. P. A., Nashville, Tenn.

Hot Lunches Served.

When you farmers bring your tobacco to Carthage stop at our restaurant and get good, hot lunches. Meals served at all hours. Prices reasonable.

Taylor Bros. Restaurant.